It may be transferred to any other location on French territory by the decision of the Board of Directors, subject to ratification of this decision by the next Ordinary Shareholders' Meeting.

When a transfer is decided on by the Board of Directors, said Board shall be authorised to amend the Memorandum and Articles of Association accordingly.

ARTICLE 5 – LIFE

The Company's life shall end on 17 June 2067 unless it is extended or the Company is dissolved early.

ARTICLE 6 – SHARE CAPITAL

The share capital is set at four million five hundred and seventy-eight thousand five hundred and sixty-eight euros and fifty-six cents (€4,578,568.56) divided into two hundred and twenty-eight million nine hundred and twenty-eight thousand four hundred and twenty-eight (228,928,428) shares with a nominal value of €0.02 each ("Ordinary Shares").

It may include preferred shares from different categories convertible into ordinary shares (the "preferred shares") conferring on their holders the specific rights and obligations described in Article 8.3.2 of the Articles of Association. ARTICLE 7 – CHANGES IN SHARE CAPITAL

The share capital may be increased or reduced pursuant to a decision of an Extraordinary General Meeting of the shareholders under the conditions laid down by law.

The General Meeting may delegate to the Board of Directors the powers necessary for the purpose of increasing or reducing the capital.

Whenever it may be necessary to hold several shares in order to exercise a right, especially in the case of a reduction of capital, for any reason and in any manner whatsoever, the shareholders shall be personally responsible for grouping, and, if applicable, buying or selling the number of shares or rights required.

ARTICLE 8 – SHARES

1. Form

Shares may be registered or bearer shares, at the shareholder's choice, in the absence of legal provisions, regulations or bylaws stipulations which may provide, in certain cases, solely for registered shares.

The Company shall be entitled to request the identification of holders of securities that grant the right to vote at its own General Meetings, immediately or subsequently, as well as the quantities held, all the foregoing under conditions laid down by the laws in force.

2. Transfer of shares

Shares may be traded freely in the absence of statutory or regulatory provisions or contrary agreement(s) between the Company and their holders to the contrary, in any form whatsoever.

They shall be transferred by account-to-account transfer.

3. Rights of shares

3.1 Rights of ordinary shares – Indivisibility

Ownership of an ordinary share shall automatically entail acceptance of the Memorandum and Articles of Association and decisions taken by General Meetings of the shareholders.

Rights and obligations attached to an ordinary share shall remain with it regardless of the owner of said share.

The right to take part in General Meetings and to vote on resolutions shall be attached to each ordinary share under the conditions laid down by law and by the Memorandum and Articles of Association.

Each ordinary share shall give the right to ownership of the Company's assets and in the sharing of profits in proportion to the number of existing ordinary shares, taking into account the nominal value of the ordinary shares and the rights of different classes of shares, where applicable.

All existing or future ordinary shares making up the share capital shall be treated identically for tax purposes. As a result, and apart from the effect of the date as from which dividends can be paid or how far the shares have been paid up, all the ordinary shares shall give the right, during the Company's life and in the event of liquidation, to payment of the same net amount in any allocation or redemption, such that all ordinary shares shall be considered together, where applicable, regardless of any tax exemptions or of any other taxes to which this allocation or redemption could give rise.

Shareholders shall only bear the Company's losses up to the amount of their contributions.

Ordinary shares shall be indivisible as regards the Company. All joint owners of undivided ordinary shares must arrange to be represented, as regards the Company, by only one of them or by a lawful joint representative, subject to statutory or regulatory provisions relating to the exercise of the right to receive information.

Heirs, representatives or creditors of a shareholder may not, under any pretext whatsoever, cause seals to be placed on the Company's property or securities or take proceedings as regards said assets and securities, request the sharing or the public sale of property held in common (licitation) or interfere in acts by the Company's management in any way whatsoever. They shall rely on the Company's statements of assets and liabilities and decisions taken by General Meetings.

3.2 Rights of the preferred shares

The preferred shares are preferred shares within the meaning of Article L.228-11 of the French Commercial Code.

Ownership of a preference share automatically entails adherence to the Articles of Association.

The specific rights and obligations attached to each category of preferred shares are set out in the terms and conditions of the preferred shares appended as Schedule 1 to the Articles of Association (the “Terms and Conditions”).

In accordance with their Terms and Conditions, the preferred shares shall have no voting rights in the General Meetings of the Company, nor shall they have any financial rights, in particular to any distributable or distributed income or to any net liquidation proceeds.

Subject to these Articles of Association and the Terms and Conditions, the preferred shares shall confer the same rights to and obligations on their holders as the ordinary shares.

4. Crossing of statutory thresholds

In addition to the thresholds provided for by the applicable legal and regulatory provisions, any individual or legal entity, acting alone or in concert, that comes to hold, directly or indirectly, a fraction equal to or greater than three (3), four (4), six (6), seven (7), eight (8), nine (9) and twelve and a half (12.5) percent of the Company’s share capital or voting rights, must inform the Company of the total number of shares and voting rights that it owns as well as the securities giving access to the capital and voting rights potentially attached thereto by means of a registered letter with acknowledgment of receipt, sent to the registered office (place of general management) no later than the close of the fourth trading day following the day on which the threshold is crossed.

The information referred to in the previous paragraph is also given within the same deadlines and under the same conditions, when the shareholding falls below the thresholds mentioned in that paragraph.

In determining the thresholds referred to in the preceding paragraphs, account is also taken of shares or voting rights held indirectly and shares or voting rights assimilated to shares or voting rights owned as defined by the provisions of Articles L.233-7 et seq. of the French Commercial Code.

In the event of failure to comply with the provisions set out above, the penalties provided for by law in the event of failure to comply with the requirement to declare the crossing of legal thresholds will apply to the statutory thresholds only at the request, recorded in the minutes of the General Meeting, of one or more shareholders holding at least five percent (5%) of the Company’s capital or voting rights.

The Company reserves the right to inform the public and shareholders either of the information notified to it or of any failure by the person concerned to comply with the aforementioned obligation.

ARTICLE 9 – COMPOSITION OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Subject to exceptions provided for by law, the Company shall be managed by a Board of Directors comprising a minimum of three (3) members and a maximum of eighteen (18) members, appointed by the General Meeting under the conditions provided for by law.

1. Appointment

Directors are appointed by the Ordinary General Meeting under the conditions provided for by law.

However, in the event of one or more vacancies, the Board of Directors may, between two General Meetings, appoint temporary members.

Temporary appointments made by the Board of Directors are subject to ratification by the next Ordinary Shareholders’ Meeting. A member appointed to replace another shall stay in office only for the remaining term of his or her predecessor.

2. Age limit

When a Director reaches the age of 70, he or she shall remain member of the Board until the normal expiry of his or her term of office. He or she may then be re-elected once, for a term of two (2) years. However, these provisions cannot result in the number of Directors aged 70 or older exceed one-third of the Directors (natural persons or representatives of legal entities) in office.

If the aforementioned one-third threshold is exceeded, in the absence of voluntary resignation of a Director aged 70 or older, the oldest Director will be deemed to have resigned automatically.

3. Term of office

The term of office of the Directors is four (4) years. They may be re-elected. The duties of a Director terminate at the end of the Ordinary Shareholders' Meeting convened to approve the Company's financial statements for the preceding fiscal year and held in the year during which his or her term of office expires. Notwithstanding the above, in order to provide for a staggered renewal of the Board, the members of the first Board of Directors who would have served as of 20 April 2021 as members of the Supervisory Board of the Company under its former governance structure, and who would have been appointed as Directors by the Ordinary Shareholders' Meeting, would serve as Directors for a duration of one, two, three or four years, equal to the remaining duration of their term of office as Supervisory Board's member.

4. Dismissal

Directors may be dismissed at any time upon decision of the Ordinary Shareholder's Meeting.

5. Number of shares of the Company that each Director shall own

During his or her term of office, each Director must own at least twelve (12) registered shares of the Company.

If, on the date of his or her appointment, a Director does not own the required number of shares or if, during his or her term of office, he or she ceases to own such shares, he or she shall be deemed to have resigned automatically if he or she has not regularised his or her situation within six months.

6. Director representing employee shareholders

When the report presented by the Board of Directors to the General Meeting pursuant to Article L.225-102 of the French Commercial Code establishes that the shares held by the employees of the Company and by employees of the companies related to it within the meaning of Article L.225-180 of said Code, represent more than three percent (3%) of the share capital, a Director representing the employee shareholders shall be elected by the Ordinary Shareholders' Meeting from among the two candidates proposed by the employee shareholders referred to in the aforementioned Article L.225-102, in accordance with the terms and conditions set forth by the regulations in force and by these bylaws.

The two candidates for election to the position of member of the Board of Directors employee shareholder are appointed under the following conditions:

- a) if the shares held by the employees referred to in Article L.225-102 of the French Commercial Code are held through a company mutual fund ("FCPE"), all of the Supervisory Boards of these FCPEs, specially convened for this purpose, shall jointly designate a candidate.

At the meetings of the Supervisory Boards of the aforementioned FCPEs, each member of these Supervisory Boards has one vote for the appointment of a candidate for election to the position of member of the Supervisory Board representing employee shareholders. This candidate is appointed by a majority of the votes cast by the members of the Supervisory Boards present or represented at the aforementioned meeting or having cast a vote via mail;

- b) if the shares are held directly by the employees referred to in Article L.225-102 of the French Commercial Code, the employees shall nominate a candidate. The appointment of the candidate will be made by the employee shareholders through an electronic voting procedure. Under this voting procedure, each employee shareholder will have a number of votes equal to the number of shares he or she holds directly. The candidate is nominated by a majority of the votes cast by the employee shareholder voters;
- c) if all of the shares held by the employees referred to in Article L.225-102 of the French Commercial Code are held under the conditions referred to in a) of this paragraph 6, the two candidates referred to in the first paragraph of this paragraph 6 shall be appointed by the Supervisory Boards of the FCPEs in accordance with the procedures described in a) of this paragraph 6. Reciprocally, the provisions of b) of this paragraph 6 shall apply to the appointment of the two candidates referred to in the first paragraph of this paragraph 6 in the event that all the shares held by the employees referred to in Article L.225-102 of the French Commercial Code are held under the conditions referred to in b) of this paragraph.

Prior to the appointment of the two candidates for the position of Director representing employee shareholders, the Chairman of the Board of Directors, with the ability to sub-delegate such adoption, shall adopt a Regulation for the Appointment of Candidates (the “Regulation”) specifying the timetable and organization of the appointment procedures provided for in a) and b) of this paragraph 6.

The Regulation will be brought to the attention of the members of the FCPE Supervisory Boards, as part of the appointment procedure provided for in a) of this paragraph 6, and to the attention of employee shareholders, as part of the appointment procedure provided for in b) of this paragraph 6, by any means that the Chairman of the Board of Directors deems appropriate and adequate, in particular, and without limitation, by means of posters and/or individual mail and/or electronic communication.

The Regulation must be communicated at least two months (i) before the actual meeting of the FCPE Supervisory Boards following the procedure provided for in paragraph 6 a) and (ii) before the opening of the voting period provided for in paragraph 6 b).

The Director representing employee shareholders shall be elected by the Ordinary Shareholders’ Meeting from among the two candidates nominated, respectively, pursuant to the provisions of a) and b) of this paragraph 6, under the conditions applicable to any appointment as Director. The Board of Directors presents the two candidates to the Shareholders’ Meeting by means of two separate resolutions, and approves, if applicable, the resolution concerning the preferred candidate. The candidate referred to above who receives the highest number of votes from the shareholders present or represented at the Ordinary Shareholders’ Meeting shall be elected as Director representing employee shareholders.

This Director is not taken into account in determining the maximum number of Directors provided for in Article L.225-17 of the French Commercial Code nor, under the conditions provided for by law, for the application of the first paragraph of Article L.225-18-1 of the French Commercial Code.

In accordance with the above provisions, the term of office of the Director representing employee shareholders is set at four (4) years and ends in accordance with the aforementioned provisions.

However, his or her term of office shall automatically terminate and the Director representing employee shareholders shall be deemed to have resigned automatically in the event of loss of the status of employee of the Company (or of a company or economic interest grouping related to it within the meaning of Article L.225-180 of the French Commercial Code). The renewal of the term of office as Director representing employee shareholders shall be carried out under the conditions provided for in this Article.

The provisions of these bylaws relating to the number of shares that each Director must hold throughout his or her term of office are not applicable to this Director representing employee shareholders. However, the Director representing employee shareholders must hold, either individually or through an FCPE governed by Article L.214-40 of the French Monetary and Financial Code, at least one share or a number of units of said fund equivalent to at least one share. Failing this, they shall be deemed to have resigned automatically on the date on which they cease to hold a share of the Company or a number of units of the FCPE representing at least one share of the Company.

In the event of a vacancy in the position of Director representing employee shareholders for any reason whatsoever, the appointment of candidates to replace such member shall be made in accordance with the conditions set forth in this Article at the latest prior to the next Ordinary Shareholders’ Meeting or, if such meeting is held less than four (4) months after the position becomes vacant, prior to the following Ordinary Shareholders’ Meeting. Such Director will be elected by the Ordinary Shareholders’ Meeting for a further period of four (4) years. Until the date of replacement of the Director representing employee shareholders, the Board of Directors may validly meet and deliberate.

The provisions of this Article shall cease to apply when, at the end of a fiscal year, the percentage of the Company's share capital held by the employees of the Company and its affiliates within the meaning of the aforementioned Article L.225-180, within the framework provided by the provisions of the aforementioned Article L.225-102, represents less than 3% of such share capital, provided that the term of office of any member of the Director appointed pursuant to this Article shall expire at the end of such term.

7. Director representing employees

The Board of Directors also includes, as the case may be, one or two Directors representing employees, in accordance with Article L.225-27-1 of the French Commercial Code.

When during a fiscal year, the number of Directors, calculated in accordance with Article L.225-27-1 II of the French Commercial Code, is less than or equal to eight (8), the Group Committee (Comité de Groupe), as provided for in Article L.2331-1 of the French Labor Code, shall appoint a single Director representing the employees, by majority vote.

When during a fiscal year, the number of Directors, calculated in accordance with Article L.225-27-1 II of the French Commercial Code, exceeds eight (8), and provided that this criteria is still satisfied on the date of appointment, the European Works Council (Comité d'Entreprise Européen), provided for in Article L.2342-9 of the French Labor Code, appoints a second Director representing the employees.

The term of office of the Directors representing employees is set at four (4) years from the date of their appointment. They may be re-elected.

If the number of Directors, calculated pursuant to Article L.225-27-1 II of the French Commercial Code, initially greater than eight (8) members, becomes less than or equal to eight (8) members, the terms of office of the Directors representing employees are maintained until they expire.

The non-appointment of one or more Directors representing employees pursuant to the law and these Articles of Association shall not affect the validity of the meetings and deliberations of the Board of Directors.

The functions of the Directors representing the employees terminate at the end of the meeting of the Ordinary General Meeting convened to approve the financial statements for the preceding fiscal year, and held in the year during which their term of office expires. However, their term of office ends automatically under the conditions provided for by law and by this Article, and the Director representing the employees is deemed to have resigned automatically in the event of loss of the status of employee of the Company or of a company controlled by it, within the meaning of Article L.233-3 of the French Commercial Code. Similarly, if the conditions for the application of Article L.225-27-1 of the French Commercial Code are no longer met, the term of office of the Director(s) shall end at the earlier of the following dates: (i) at the end of the current term of office, or (ii) at the end of the Board of Directors' Meeting at which the Board of Directors acknowledges that the Company is outside of the scope of application of the law.

Should a position of Director representing the employees become vacant for any reason, his or her substitute shall be designated following the same modalities as the Director whose position became vacant and shall keep this position for the remaining of his or her predecessor's term of office. Until the date of replacement of the Director (or, where applicable, Directors) representing the employees, the Board of Directors validly meets and deliberates.

The provisions of paragraph 5, relating to the number of shares to be held by a Director, are not applicable to Directors representing employees.

Directors representing employees are not taken into account in determining the minimum and maximum number of members of the Board of Directors provided for in Article L.225-17 of the French Commercial Code, nor for the application of the first paragraph of Article L.225-18-1 of the French Commercial Code.

When the Chairman of the Board of Directors is also responsible for the executive management of the Company, all the legal and regulatory provisions applying to the Chief Executive Officer will apply to him or her.

2. Vice-Chairman of the Board of Directors

The Board of Directors may also appoint a Vice-Chairman from among its natural person members, for whom it will determine the term of office, within the limit of that of his or her term of office as Director.

The Vice-Chairman chairs Board and Shareholders' Meetings in the absence of the Chairman. The other powers of the Vice-Chairman, if any, shall be set forth in the internal regulations of the Board of Directors.

An attendance register is kept, which is signed by the Directors participating in the Board of Directors' Meeting, and which mentions, where applicable, the names of Directors participating in the meeting by videoconference or by the use of telecommunication means.

The decisions of the Board of Directors may be taken by written consultation of the Directors under the conditions provided for by law.

Members of the Board of Directors, as well as any person called upon to attend Board Meetings, are bound by a duty of discretion with regard to the deliberations of the Board of Directors as well as with regard to information of a confidential nature or presented as such by the Chairman of the Board of Directors.

5. Quorum and majority

The Board of Directors can only deliberate validly if at least half of its members are present.

Decisions are taken by a majority of the members present or represented. In the event of a tie vote, no Director has a casting vote.

6. Internal regulations

The Board of Directors establishes internal regulations, which may provide that Directors participating in Board Meetings by videoconference or other telecommunication shall be deemed present for purposes of calculating the quorum and required majority, under the conditions laid down by law and applicable regulations in force.

ARTICLE 13 – EXECUTIVE MANAGEMENT

1. Method of exercising executive management

Executive management of the Company is fulfilled under his or her responsibility, either by the Chairman of the Board of Directors, in which case referred to as Chairman and Chief Executive Officer, or by another natural person appointed by the Board of Directors and in such a case referred to as Chief Executive Officer.

Provided that the question is included in the agenda, the Board of Directors may choose between the two options for performing the executive management function, ruling under the quorum and majority conditions set forth in paragraph 5 of Article 10. This choice shall remain valid until the Board of Directors otherwise decides under the same conditions. Shareholders and third persons shall be informed of this choice pursuant to applicable legal and regulatory provisions.

In the event of a separation of the functions of Chairman and that of Chief Executive Officer, he or she – who is not necessarily a Director – is appointed for a term freely determined by the Board of Directors.

However, if the Chief Executive Officer is also a Director, his or her term may not exceed that of his or her term of office as Director.

The Chief Executive Officer may be reappointed.

When the functions of Chairman of the Board of Directors and Chief Executive Officer are separated, the Chief Executive Officer shall be deemed to have resigned automatically at the end of the Ordinary General Meeting following the date he or she reaches the age of 65.
